The Gainesville Senior Games Begins this Weekend

Gainesville, Florida

October 23-25, 2009

The 9th Annual Gainesville Senior Games begins this Friday, October 23rd thru Sunday, October 25th. This year's games are once again presented by Shands HealthCare and hosted by the Gainesville Sports Commission. Over 300 athletes ages 50 and over will compete in 11 sports events all around Alachua County and the City of Gainesville. This year there are over 55 local City of Gainesville residents competing. Each Senior Games athlete will be competing for gold, silver and bronze medals in their age group and a chance to qualify for the State Senior Games in December. This year's Senior Games will feature archery, basketball shooting, 3 on 3 half court basketball, bowling, cycling, golf, road race, tennis, swimming, table tennis, and track and field.

New to this year's Senior Games are the facilities where three of the sports events are being held. The Tennis event will be held at the Jonesville Tennis Center which recently opened in May; and the Basketball and Tennis Table events will be held at the brand new Easton Archery Center in Newberry, FL.
